CyberHx - Find the Flag (OSINT)

Flag: CyberHx{KuroFlare}

1. Challenge prompt

The prompt: "Lord Rama belonged to the Suryavanshi - the Solar Dynasty. By the grace of the Sun, we launch Find the Flag. The comments may help you find the flag." Flag format: CyberHx{WarriorName}.

So there were three things to go on. The answer is tied to the Sun, it's hidden somewhere in the comments of a post, and it's the name of a warrior.

2. Instagram comments (dead end)

I started with the comments on @pinaka_ctf's announcement post on Instagram, since that's the event's main social account and the obvious place for "the comments".

It was a dead end. The comments were mostly players spamming "Flag", plus the author (iamkushagra.dwivedi) commenting "Jai Shri Ram". Nothing in there pointed anywhere.

3. The hint

The hint was "Professional blue website Known for Happy to share".

"Professional" plus "blue website" is LinkedIn. "Known for" is a field on LinkedIn profiles and pages, and "Happy to share" is how half the posts on LinkedIn start. So the comments I needed were on CyberHx's LinkedIn, not on Instagram.

4. CyberHx LinkedIn: author comment

I went to the CyberHx company page (linkedin.com/company/cyberhx), opened the Find the Flag post and read through the comments. The CyberHx account itself, tagged as "Author", had left a comment that was just a link: pentestlab.cyberhx.com.

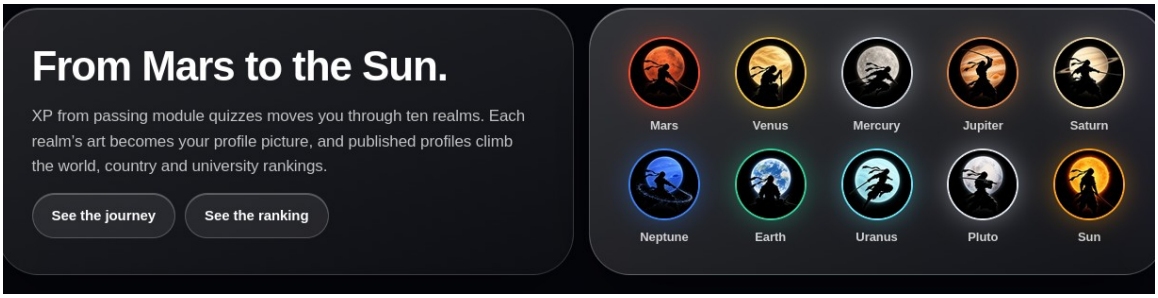

That was the next stop.

5. pentestlab.cyberhx.com: realms

pentestlab.cyberhx.com is CyberHx's Pentest Lab platform. The landing page has a section called "From Mars to the Sun": you earn XP from module quizzes, that moves you through ten realms, and each realm's art becomes your profile picture.

Every realm has its own warrior silhouette: Mars, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn, Neptune, Earth, Uranus, Pluto, and last of all, the Sun. With the prompt going on about the Solar Dynasty and the grace of the Sun, the Sun realm was clearly the one to focus on.

6. The video: Sun chapter

I kept digging through the site and found a video that walks through the whole realm journey. The final chapter shows:

> Chapter 10 . Sun
> The Last Light
> Solar energy
> Stage I - Planet Conquest
> Master of Shadows
> Warrior KuroFlare
> Planet energy 78%

So the Sun realm's warrior is KuroFlare. The name fits, too: "Kuro" is Japanese for black/shadow (hence "Master of Shadows"), and a flare is what the Sun throws out.

7. Flag

Flag: CyberHx{KuroFlare}

The full chain: Sun + "comments" in the prompt, the hint pointing to LinkedIn, the author's comment linking to the Pentest Lab, the Sun as the final realm, and the realm video naming the warrior KuroFlare.
